

Inclusive Education Services <sup>[1]</sup>

University of Central Florida

This is an inclusive non-degree college experience. Students take three to four classes per semester, have a paid or volunteer job on campus, participate in clubs and organizations, complete a community internship and have a chance to select their own activities. Living on campus is optional. Upon successful completion of this two year experience, students will earn a Continuing Education certificate in the areas of Hospitality, Social Services or Education.
