The NCC has hundreds of carefully selected resources on a wide range of topics related to postsecondary education for people with intellectual disabilities including transition, applying to and paying for college, setting up and maintaining a college program, relevant legislation, competitive employment, living in the community, accessing benefits, and more.

SUGGESTED RESOURCES FOR FAMILIES

- Preparing Your Child for College: Suggestions for Parents of Children with Intellectual Disability
- Factsheet: Transitioning to College: Tips for Parents to Help Students with Intellectual Disabilities
- Think About College
- The College Application Process: It Takes a Village webinar resources
- Paying for College
- Facebook Group for Parents

SUGGESTED RESOURCES FOR EDUCATORS

- Handout: Materials for Transition Educators
- Teachers Can Think College
- Transition Goals and Activities for Inclusive Post-Secondary Programs
- How IEP Teams Can Use Dual Enrollment Experiences to Develop Robust Plans
- Teaching & Learning Online: Strategies for Supporting Students with ID
- College-based Transition Services Affinity Group
The NCC can connect you to people with similar interests and needs. You can join affinity groups, Facebook groups, and stay connected through our social media channels.

GROUPS

The NCC can connect you to people with similar interests and needs. You can join affinity groups, Facebook groups, and stay connected through our social media channels.

VIDEOS

The NCC has training and educational videos on topics from starting a college program to understanding federal legislation.

DATABASE OF INCLUSIVE PROGRAMS

We have the only national database of college programs for students with intellectual disability. You can search through 308 college programs to find the one that fits best.